

Privacy and Cookie Policy

1. Privacy statement

This privacy policy ("this Policy") covers the use of your personal information by National Car Parks Limited and any other operating company in the National Car Parks limited group of companies ("NCP, we or us") of The Bailey, 16 Old Bailey, London EC4M 7EG.

We are registered as a data controller with the Information Commissioner's Office ("ICO"). Our registration numbers is Z7510045.

This Policy works in tandem with NCP's terms and conditions.

Our vision is to keep all personal information safe and secure and comply with all applicable data privacy laws in all jurisdictions within which we operate.

2. The information we collect

We collect personal information about you in the course of running our business and providing our services to you.

We may collect personal information about you from a variety of sources for example:

- directly from you, our customers and prospective customers, when you complete surveys or are using or enquiring about our products or services
- from our business partners where we provide you with our products or services on their behalf
- from service providers where they provide you with services or products on our behalf or where we use them to help us provide our products or services to you
- from cookies (for information regarding cookies, please see the cookie and profiling section below)
- and from government agencies such as the DVLA where lawfully allowed or required

The personal information we collect ourselves may include your:

- name
- age
- contact details (telephone number, email address, address)
- date of birth
- banking and financial details in order to facilitate payment
- CCTV images (which may capture ethnicity and health conditions)
- other images, such as, visual call images or documents provided for photographic identification purposes
- our website collects information about your computer, including (where available) your IP address, operating system and browser type, for system administration, to filter traffic, to look up user domains and to report on statistics
- details of your visits to our website, the pages you view and resources you access or download, including but not limited to, traffic data and location data
- health information (in relation to incidents that occur at our car parks and to administer the use of blue badges)
- and vehicle details (including vehicle registration marks or numbers (VRM))
- the date and time you used the service
- the places you've visited and the length of your visit
- any information within correspondence you send to us

3. How we use your information

We use personal information for the purpose for which it has been provided or obtained.

We use your personal information on one or more of the following legal basis:

- with your express consent
- legal obligation
- for legitimate business purposes
- and/or to perform a contract or an agreement with you

This enables us to use your personal information:

- to provide the service or product you've requested or purchased
- to manage our relationships with you, and with our business partners
- to contact you, if any issues arise in our premises or with your booking
- to market our services and products to you
- to understand the way people use our services and products so we can improve them
- to conduct free prize draws
- for employee recruitment
- to assess and analyse our market, customers, products and services
- to pursue and collect outstanding monies owed to NCP
- for the apprehension and prosecution of offenders
- for the prevention or detection of crime; and
- to comply with our legal obligations

We also use your information to analyse and profile your purchasing preferences (e.g. market, customer and product analysis) to enable us to provide you with a personalised customer service experience, make decisions about you using computerised or automated technology. For example, automatically selecting products and/or services which we think will interest you from the information we have.

We may supplement the information that you provide to us with information that we receive from third parties. In particular, we will carry out searches with credit reference agencies and any information provided to us may be passed to these credit reference agencies for the purposes of confirming credit worthiness.

It is our policy to use information that cannot directly identify an individual wherever possible.

Telephone calls

We may record telephone and intercom calls to verify content which may then be used together with other customer records we hold for regulatory compliance, quality control and staff training, preventing or detecting criminal activity and for complaint resolution.

4. Who we disclose personal information to

We may share information about you:

- with other companies in the NCP group
- with third party service providers/companies that provide services for us on our behalf including IT services and mailing services e.g. website host, auditors, event organisers an individual has registered for; and/or
- with our business partners who may use your information to provide you with the services you request, analyse and assess their market, customers, products and services

There may also be instances when we disclose your information:

- if we have a duty pursuant to the law to do so, or if the law allows us to do so
- to verify or enforce compliance with the policies and terms governing our services

We may share your information with the relevant company that your car parking booking relates to. For example, customer data for bookings made with Birmingham Airport are sent securely to Birmingham Airport to fulfil the service you have requested and for marketing purposes.

Other carefully selected partners include but not limited to:

- Norwich Airport
- Birmingham Airport
- Glasgow Airport
- Gatwick Airport
- Avanti West Coast Trains
- HS1

Transfer outside of the European Economic Area (EEA)

We rarely transfer personal information outside of the EEA, we only do this in order to carry out the activities listed in "the information we collect" and "how we use your information" sections. In some instances where we need to send personal data outside the EEA, we put in place regulatory approved international data transfer contract clauses.

5. How we keep your information secure

We'll treat your information in strict confidence, and we'll endeavour to take all reasonable steps to keep your personal information secure once it's been transferred to our systems.

Personal data submitted through our service(s) are stored securely and protected by multiple anti-malware firewalls. However, the internet is not a secure medium and we can't guarantee the security of any information you disclose online.

We use Direct Payment Gateways to process your card payments. These Direct Payment Gateways adhere to the standards set by the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard (PCI-DSS) as managed by the PCI Security Standards Council, which is a joint effort of brands like Visa, MasterCard, American Express and Discover.

PCI-DSS requirements, help ensure the secure handling of credit card information by our Service and its service providers. Your payment data is stored only if necessary to complete your purchase transaction.

6. How long we keep your information

If we are providing services to you, we will retain your personal information for the duration of the services, unless otherwise agreed.

We retain:

- Phone calls/ intercom calls, which are recorded, for 12 months
- CCTV recordings for up to 30 days
- Parking Charge Notice (PCN) records for 3 years

Unless otherwise set out in this privacy policy, any other information we process about you will be retained by us until we no longer need it for the purposes for which it was collected, as set out in this privacy policy and/or the relevant fair processing notice. We will base that decision on a number of criteria, including whether we are required by law to keep the information for a certain period of time, whether you have withdrawn consent to the processing, whether a contract has been performed and the likelihood of us needing to retain the information in the event of a claim arising, whether the data is still up to date and whether there are exceptions set out in the applicable data protection legislation that allows us to retain the personal data for a longer period or indefinitely.

7. Cookies, tags and profiling

We use four types of cookies and similar tools across our website to improve its performance and enhance your user experience.

- First party cookies: we set these cookies and they can only be read by us
- Persistent cookies: we use persistent cookies which will be saved on your computer for a fixed period (usually one year or longer). They won't be deleted when the browser is closed. We use persistent cookies to recognise your device for more than one browsing session
- Session cookies: we use session cookies which are only stored temporarily during a browsing session and will be deleted from your device when the browser is closed
- Third party cookies: we use a number of third-party suppliers who also set cookies on our website in order to deliver the services that they are providing. These cookies are known as third party cookies. If you would like more information about the cookies used by these suppliers, as well as information on how to opt-out, please see individual third-party cookies listed below

Depending on the type of cookies we use, cookies also allow us to make the website more user-friendly. For example, permanent cookies allow us to save your password so that you do not have to re-enter it every time you visit the website. The website may also use cookies to make sure you don't see the same content repeatedly and/or to deliver content specific to your interests.

Cookies used on the website and their functions
